

Spider is an automatic, high efficiency packing machine, suitable for fruits and vegetables packed in punnets in extruded tubular net. The net tube is extremely long and grants an high autonomy of work.

Useful for processing of products like: peaches, nectarines, kiwi, apricots, plums, tomatoes, avocado, citrus, cherries, pears, grapes, zucchini, carrots, peppers and so on (all products that can be contained in a punnet).

Details:

- Pneumatic operating
- Adjustable packaging format from 0,5 a 2 Kg without mechanical variations
- Net tube Ø225 mm L=1800 mm
- Huge capacity of net tube (more than 600 meters, about 1.900 packs)
- High resolution printer Toshiba for wineglass labels, with alarms manage and labels memory
- Possibility to work with different length of wineglass labels
- Applicator of tape that is useful as an handle, width up to 27 mm
- Alarm management through a practical colors touch-screen panel
- Display of instantaneous production (packs /minute)
- Extremely gentle drive punnets system
- The package is closed through the traditional metal clip in coil (5x0.30±0.35mm)
- The metal clip coil is located in an easily accessible compartment, and it is LED lighted
- Parts subject to dirt in Aisi 304 stainless steel and anodized aluminum for easy cleaning
- Very high production continuity
- Very simple to operate
- Capacity: more than 50 packs/min

